One comfortable, sturdy straight backed chair without arms (no squeaks, please!)
One small table for beverages and guitar accessories
One vocal mic with boom stand, SM58 quality or better
One instrument mic on a small boom stand (If you have a nice one you use routinely, great, if not, Dean usually travels with one)
One XLR line with phantom power
Sound system adequate for the space
Dean prefers to work without a stage monitor
Water on stage and in dressing room, coffee or fruit juice on request
Two small hand towels, if requested
A private dressing room where artist can warm up, change clothes and securely store his belongings during the performance
